LISTOPAD 2012

TRANSKRYPCJA NAGRAŃ

Zadanie 1.

Listen as five people share their thoughts on studying and learning English.

Speaker 1.

What is the best way to learn English? I think the best way to learn English is to talk with native speakers, speakers who have English as their mother tongue, but the really best way to learn English is if you have an English boyfriend or girlfriend because that really makes you learn English a lot faster.

Speaker 2.

I think the best way to learn English is to speak with people in English and try to communicate in English as much as you can. The next thing I think is to listen to the news, TV and native English speakers as often as possible.

Speaker 3.

The best way to learn English. First, you watch movies. A lot of movies, foreign movies. Well, English movies would be the best. That's the first thing you have to do, and then second of all, you should learn vocabulary and have conversation with a native speaker because you can improve your pronunciation, too.

Speaker 4.

In my opinion, while learning English not only reading a book or correcting grammar is important, but facing with the real native is one of the most important things to improve your skills.

Speaker 5.

The best way to learn English I believe is actually to go to a country that they speak English. You will pick it up very fast. There is no other way. You have to learn or otherwise you will be somewhat outside of the society, so the best way to learn is being around the people that speak English.

The Fashion house

As you can imagine, the people here are quite fashion conscious. In fact, some days it feels like a catwalk show. It is very competitive, too. People can wear whatever they like, but usually they choose to dress smartly for work. They are the kind of people who enjoy dressing up. I guess, that's why they like working for a company like this.

Most people wear black. It's a bit like a uniform in the fashion industry, everyone wears black. Um, black blouses, polar neck jumpers, black trousers, black leather jackets, and that is just the girls!

The men are usually more imaginative, which is not surprising really they are all very extroverted. They normally wear brightly coloured shirts and ties. There is one guy here who even colours his hair to match his ties! Completely mad! This week his hair is green, I think, or blue. Personally, I like a more elegant look, dark suits and high heels.

A lot of the models who come in here are smokers. It's amazing how many models smoke, but they are not allowed to smoke in the building so they have to go outside, and they can't be near the entrance because it gives a bad impression, so they are usually around the back.

The office opens at eight, but hours here are flexible, which means people can arrive anytime up to about ten o'clock. I usually get here early because I like to go home early to miss the rush hour. We get free coffee all day, but we can't bring food into the office. It's ok, no one here eats anything anyway!

Zadanie 3.

Good evening, and welcome to the ten o'clock news. On the news tonight:

A train crash in the North East has left three people critically injured. It is thought that the crash was due to the lights failing. Thankfully no one was killed. An investigation is underway.

Scientists have discovered the optimal amount of sleep for humans. Research has shown that people who sleep for six hours every night are more alert and often more intelligent than those who sleep for shorter or longer periods.

An ice skating rink is to be erected in the park next week, ready for the beginning of the autumn festival. Admission to the rink will be free to those who have skates, and one pound to those who want to hire them.

A competition to win a holiday to the Bahamas has caused shops to run out of orange juice this week. The competition, run by „Juicy O” has left thousands of people disappointed. Inside one of the cartons there is a plane ticket.

The golf championships are due to take place on the major golf courses in the west of the city this week. The event, which will attract well-known golfing figures worldwide, is set to be a great success.

And now for the weather forecast. Tomorrow should be bright with light showers in the morning. In the afternoon things should brighten up and top temperature will be 15 degrees.

That's all from us tonight. Thank you for listening.
